

„Pisao sam tako kao da sam opet u svom rodnom kraju, pa hodam i igram se po njivama i šumama. Razgovaram sa svojim nekadašnjim drugovima iz djetinjstva. Pišući i govoreći o svojim drugovima i poznanicima ujedno govorim i pričam o sebi i ostalim zbivanjima u proteklom, a i sadašnjem vremenu mog života i rodnog kraja iz kojeg sam ponio veliku ljubav prema prirodi i uspomene na djetinjstvo koje su se kasnije javile kao motivi u mojoj priči Neustrašiva mladost.“

“I wrote as if I were in my homeland again, as if I'm walking and playing in the fields and forests, talking with my childhood friends. When writing and speaking about my friends and acquaintances, I also talk about myself and other events in the past, but also present. From my homeland I carried great love towards nature and my childhood memories which later appear as motives in my story Fearless Youth.“

Fotografska serija u nastajanju Neustrašiva mladost temeljena je na istoimenom neobjavljenom autobiografiji mog djeda Hasana (1928.–2011.) u kojoj se prisjeća, između ostalog, svojeg ratnog puta u Drugom svjetskom ratu.

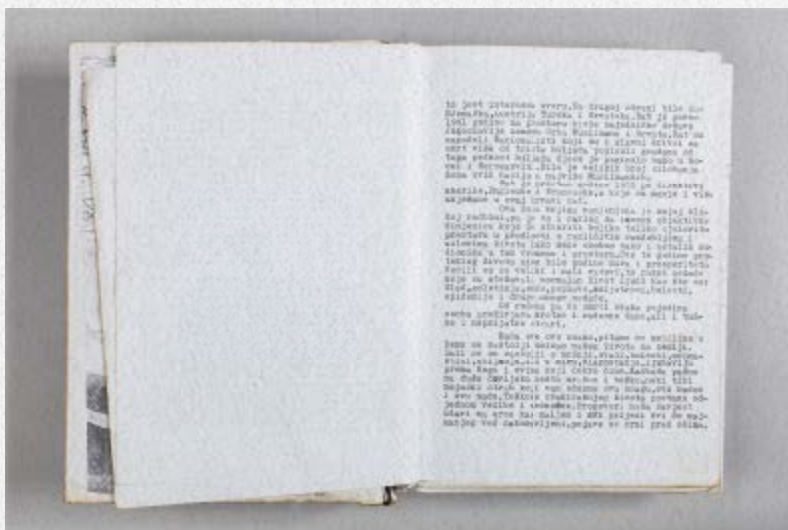

Njegovo odrastanje u malom muslimanskom selu na jugu Bosne i Hercegovine prekinuto je kada je regrutiran u ustašku vojsku u kojoj je služio od 1943. do 1945. Slijedeći djedove mape i opise te koristeći se njegovom knjigom kao kompasom, putujem 1800 km kroz Hrvatsku, Bosnu i Hercegovinu te Sloveniju kako bih posjetila opisana mjesta ratnog puta, opterećena poviješću i obilježena traumatičnim događajima. Činom fotografiranja, ta mjesta za mene postaju osobni spomenici našeg odnosa, mjesto susreta prošlosti i sadašnjosti.

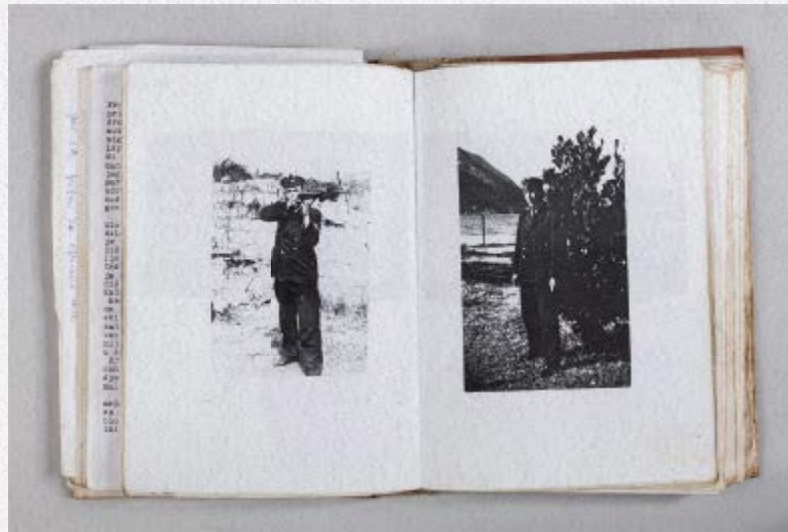

Poput neželjenoga obiteljskog naslijeđa, prošlost predaka prenosi se s koljena na koljeno, s njom se rađamo i nju nosimo iako joj nismo nikada svjedočili. Povezujući arhivski materijal s pejzažima i autoportretima ispreplićem osobnu i kolektivnu povijest te tako uspostavljam dijalog s djedovom prošlošću, koja je ujedno neizbježno moja vlastita prošlost.

Photography series in progress Fearless Youth is based on the eponymous, unpublished autobiography of my grandfather Hasan (1928–2011) in which he recalls, among other things, his experiences in World War II.

His upbringing in a small Muslim village in Bosnia and Herzegovina was abruptly interrupted when he was recruited into the Ustashe army in which he served from 1943 to 1945. Following my grandfather's descriptions, maps and routes and by using his book as a compass, I travelled 1800 km through Croatia, Bosnia and Herzegovina and Slovenia to visit the places he describes, burdened by history and marked by traumatic events. Through the act of photography, they become personal monuments of our relationship, a meeting point of the past and the present.

Like an unwanted family heirloom, the past is passed down from generation to generation, we are born into it and we carry it even if we never witnessed it. Using archival material along with the landscapes and self-portraits I am weaving a map of intertwined personal and collective history to establish a dialogue with my late grandfather's past, a past that is inevitably mine.
